The News.

Several interesting items of news will be found in the telegraph columns. We continue to receive accounts of the celebration of the success of the "event of events," in nearly all parts of the country. The President's Message to the Queen was only transmitted yesterday morning. Its transmission was delayed until then for some cause occuring at Valentia, with which the operators on this side are not yet acquainted.—It is scarcely to be expected that the electricians could operate with perfect success, until they become more familiar with the nature of the cable, and the apparatus used in connection with it.

The Michigan State Convention convened at Detroit yesterday, and nominated for Governor MOSES WISNER, for Lieut. Governor E. B. FAIRFIELD, and for Secretary of State NELSON G. ISBELL.

A grand military demonstration took place at Portland, Me., on Wednesday.

In the New York market, yesterday, flour advanced from 5 to 10c., and wheat was in active demand also, at an advance of 1 to 2c. With a brisk competition, prices of wheat advanced considerably in our own market, which is now above the New York market!

The weather was cool, yesterday, but quite clear and agreeable.

Gov. Randall's Second Letter.

We commend to the careful attention of the reader, the letter from the Executive of this State, which will be found at length in this paper. It is a frank, manly, fearless, dignified and able communication—such as the mass of the people of Wisconsin, who desire nothing but the right, and only ask not to be wronged—will warmly approve. In this matter we boldly assert, that the Governor has planted himself upon a rock of principle, justice and honor which the clamors of a corrupt and treacherous corporation, and the howling of a few interested journals cannot move.—Watertown Democrat.

We might fill our columns with similar extracts from Democratic and Republican papers, in all quarters of the State, warmly sustaining the position of the Governor in this matter of the Land Grant. There can be no question that nine tenths of the People of Wisconsin approve of Governor RANDALL's decision, and intend to hold the La Crosse Company to their bargain. We have never seen any reason to doubt that the Company would faithfully fulfil the conditions of the Grant; but the articles in the News and Wisconsin have led a good many to think that the Company did not intend to build the Madison, or Columbus branches. Hence the intense feeling evinced, all over the State, on this subject. Not only the Company, but the City of Milwaukee, has suffered from the mis-directed zeal and ill-advised course of the News and Wisconsin.

The Crops in Calumet County.

CHARLESTON, Calumet Co., Aug. 14.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I wrote you, a short time ago, that the Wheat in this vicinity would not be two-thirds of an average crop. Upon a further examination and inquiry, I can safely say one-third, instead of two-thirds. Owing too the wet weather in the Spring, most of the Spring Wheat was sown very late, and it is not worth the cutting. Many of our small farmers, (and in fact we are all small farmers, as this is a new timbered country and our improvements are yet small,) who calculated on having from fifty to a hundred bushels to spare, will have to buy their bread. Late Oats are rusting bad; early sown are good. Blight has struck the Potatoes.

Respectfully yours,
J. H. STANLEY.

Death of Paul Juneau.

In the rear of the Court House, in the village of Juneau, at half past ten o'clock in the forenoon of Friday, August 13th, 1858, Paul Juneau was accidentally hit by a ball shot carelessly and at random from a pistol, and after staggering a few steps, fell to the ground and expired within space of three minutes. The bullet entered the right side of his breast, and so fatal was its effect, that he never uttered a word and died apparently without any pain beyond the first sharp momentary pang of agony.

The deceased was the second son of the late Solomon Juneau, the founder of Milwaukee, and the first born of that revered pioneer after his permanent settlement at the flourishing commercial emporium of Wisconsin, now more than forty years since, where Paul was born on the 28th of April, 1823. He was consequently in the thirty-fifth year of his age at the time he was so unexpectedly taken away by a most sad casualty. During the last years of his life his residence has been in Dodge County. In 1849 he was elected member of the Assembly from the Juneau district. In 1852 he was chosen Register of Deeds, which office he held four years, discharging its duties to the satisfaction of the people who had placed him there. Faithful, courteous and prompt, he won the confidence and esteem of all who knew him, and at length surrendered his responsible office with full consciousness of having faithfully discharged every public obligation that devolved upon him.

At the time of his sudden and shocking death, he was a member of the present Assembly from his district, and also Clerk of the Circuit Court of Dodge County. He was a prudent and considerate legislator—zealously guarding the interests of his constituents and solicitous to promote the welfare of the whole State—an esteemed and upright citizen—a man of integrity and honor, who had troops of friends—true to his party, above reproach and without an enemy.

His conduct in every relation—as son, brother, husband and parent—was eminently disinterested and admirable. As a public man, he filled varied and important stations. He was always found attentive, obliging and accommodating, ready and willing to grant any favor which was consistent with the highest claims of the public to his services. In the full vigor and prime of manhood—with a constitution of rare strength and a physical organization of great symmetry—liberal to a fault—enjoying the good will of all who knew him—he has been suddenly struck down in the midst of his career of usefulness—in perfect health and without a whisper from the voice of danger—when it seemed as if long years of promise were opening before him—a singular and impressive illustration of Burke's memorable saying—"What shadows we are and what shadows we pursue." His name is identified with the history of Wisconsin, and he bid fair to be among its most worthy and fortunate children. As his distinguished father's life has been intimately and honorably associated with the past history of Wisconsin, so was there every reason to believe that Paul Juneau's would be connected with the present and future of this young and prosperous commonwealth.

The last mournful tributes of respect were paid to his remains and memory on the following Sabbath day, at his desolate home in the quiet village that bears his parent's name.—Around his bier were gathered a weeping wife, six fatherless children, brothers and sisters, who had come to mingle their tears together on an occasion so mournful and unlooked for.—Neighbors from far and near had also assembled in large numbers to testify by their presence their sense of the unexpected loss which the community had sustained by this dispensation of Providence, to which it becomes all to bow in humble and trusting submission.

Among all that multitude of mourners, there was not one beyond the circle of the departed's nearest and dearest relatives, who exhibited a deeper or sincerer sorrow than an aged and silver-haired Indian, who in sadness and grief followed his lost friend to his final place of repose—weeping like a child and showing that though he belongs to a race the poets have described as he was not destitute of the sympathies which belong to humanity in every age and every clime. There was something touching and affecting in seeing an old Indian—a lonely and neglected stranger amidst the intruding crowd, who have driven his people from the beautiful land of his ancestors—coming from his distant forest home to witness the burial of one in whose veins flowed the blood of his tribe, and whose family had ever been the guardian and vindicator of his injured nation. But such are the contrasts and such are the vicissitudes of life.

The Rev. L. W. Russ, Pastor of St. Paul's church of this city, preached the funeral sermon. The text was taken from the XIVth chapter of Job, which contains that most momentous and vital of all human questions—"If a man die, shall he live again?" The discourse was well written, suggestive, eloquent, and peculiarly adapted to the circumstances under which it was delivered—impressing on all who were present, a lesson, a warning and a hope, together with the necessity of being ever ready for that great change which comes to all—we know not how, when or where, but which none can escape. The long procession then formed—the bell tolled slowly—wife, children, brothers, sisters, relatives and friends, gathered around the last resting place of a noble man—dust returned to dust—and the grave closed over all that was mortal of Paul Juneau. He sleeps well in the beautiful village that bears his and his father's name—beneath the green branches of a spreading oak—long to be remembered for his virtues—deeply regretted that his should have been an end so untimely and lamentable. There let him sleep the last sleep in peace.—Watertown Democrat, Aug. 18th

DEATH OF JUDGE WELLS.

It becomes our painful duty, this morning, to record the death of one of the pioneers of Wisconsin, the late Hon. H. N. WELLS, who expired in this city at noon yesterday, in the 51st year of his age.

Judge WELLS, while in the active pursuit of his profession, occupied a prominent position in the early history of Wisconsin, while in its embryo state, and later when it had become a member of the Union, and his name is identified with every great movement of these early times.

It is not our purpose to write an obituary of the deceased, but merely in a brief manner to chronicle his death as a mournful event in the history of our State.

The Hon. H. N. WELLS came to Milwaukee in October of 1836, while Wisconsin was yet a territory. At this period he was in the zenith of his manhood, and for some years afterwards, during the times of claims and pre-emptions, he was by far the most influential man in Wisconsin. In 1839 he was elected to represent the Territory in Congress, and during the last session of the Territorial Legislature he was an active member, and President of the Council. In company with JONATHAN E. ARNOLD, Esq., and others of the oldest members of the Bar in this State, Judge WELLS battled hard, and exerted a powerful influence against the first constitution under which the admission of Wisconsin as a State was attempted to be procured.

He was elected in 1850 to the office of County Judge, and Judge of Probate, for the county of Milwaukee, which office he held for the term of four years. Lately, infirmities and afflictions have caused him to retire from the positions which his talents and a complishments so eminently qualified him to occupy. In all his tribulations, however, he has ever borne the warmest respects of his fellowmembers of the Bar, touching as the resolves adopted by them upon the occasion of his death, amply testify.

The deceased wore the ermine of the Judge with honor and impartiality. As a member of his profession, he stood in the foremost ranks; as a man, he was beloved by all who knew him, and truly it may be said, that he was a friend to everybody—but himself.

PECULIARITIES OF THE WHEAT MARKET.—Speculation is rife in the wheat Market at the present time. Prices of wheat are higher in Milwaukee now than in New York. For instance, according to the telegraph, the highest price paid for Milwaukee Club in the Metropolis yesterday was $1,02 while the same wheat sold for $1,05 in this market, three cents above New York!—The only cause to which we can attribute this peculiar state of affairs, is speculation upon the incoming crop. This cannot long last, however. Prices must speedily rise in the Eastern Markets, else a reaction will take place here and elsewhere throughout the west. It is difficult to conjecture upon which side the scale will turn. Some of the most sagacious dealers in our city, are paying these exhorbitant prices.

A ROUND PRICE FOR WINTER WHEAT.—MR. S. O. WATKINS sold 220 bushels of choice Winter Wheat yesterday at $1,20 per bushel! This was a little above the market then, though it would not probably be to-day, Messrs. ELIOT & HOLMES also sold a small lot at the same price. This is higher than the New York Market at the present time.

LITTLE BOY DROWNED.—The body of a little boy named DAVID CAIRNES, eight years of age, was found in the Kinnikinnick, in the Fifth Ward, on Wednesday afternoon. He was missed from home on Monday, and had not been seen after that time until the body was found. His father keeps a bakery on Clinton street, but a short distance from where the boy was drowned. It is believed that he fell from the railroad track, which crosses this place, and was drowned.

PRAIRIE CHICKENS.—Our old friend "JACK" SPICE has laid upon our table a brace of choice prairie chickens, from the Game and Poultry Depot, opposite the Post Office, with the compliments of Messrs. RODWAY & Co. "JACK" tells us that these are a fair specimen of the game which Messrs. RODWAY & Co's., Depot is now daily supplied with. We mention these facts so that our readers may know where to procure the choicest poultry and game at all times.

Newspapers a Hundred Years ago—A Curiosity.

We have been shown a copy of "The Newport Mercury," of Tuesday, December 19th, 1758, "with the freshest advices, foreign and domestic." The paper, either from original quality or the discoloration of time, is of a darkish tinge, but the old fashioned type is as clear and legible as any of the present day. The sheet is about one-fourth the size of the Sentinel, and contains about the same ratio of advertising and other matter that a modern journal usually presents. It is "printed by JAMES FRANKLIN, at the printing office under the town-school."

The "leader" is an article on the relative position of the principal European powers, in which "our government" and "His Majesty" are mentioned with the pride and zeal of a royal British subject.

Two letters are copied from the "Supplement to the New York Gazette," of Dec. 18th. The letters are dated Fort du Quesne, November 26th and 30th, and are stated to have reached New York by "an express" on the 12th of December! The object of this rapid communication (!) was to carry the intelligence of the taking of Fort du Quesne, by "His Majesty's arms." Pittsburgh to New York in a fortnight—was really quick time in those days.

Among the advertisements is one of "Poor Richard's Almanack for 1759; containing, besides the usual calculations, a plain and easy process for making hard-soap," &c., &c.; also, "Of the Pole-Evil," "Of True Happiness," "Of Friendship," &c., &c.

Another notice is: "To be Sold or Let, by Col. JER ALBY, of Tiverton, a large, commodious, new dwelling house, well furnished, and painted blue." Again, "Best Liverpool Salt," is advertised, "at three pounds five shillings the single bushel."

This antique is well worth preserving, and it may remind us that the people of 1858 may look back at us as being very primitive, in spite of our Railroads and the Atlantic Telegraph, and may also witness political changes beyond our imagination.

The old paper is to be placed in the Library of the Young Men's Association, by Mr. DENNIS, one of the Board of Directors.

CHURCH ORGAN MANUFACTORY.—We paid a visit yesterday, to the Church Organ Manufactory of Messrs. O'BRIEN & LE DROIT, on the North side of Michigan, between Main and Milwaukee Streets. These gentlemen have just completed an exceedingly handsome church organ, which they offer for sale; the price, we believe, is $1500. The compass of this organ is from CC to G in alto; it has an octave and a half of pedals and thirteen registers, viz: open diapason bass, open diapason treble, principle stop diapason, dulciana, melodia, wald flute, hautboy, twelfth, fifteenth pedal organ, bourdon, dulciana and copula, and pedals to manual.

The mechanical part of this organ, the first ever built in Milwaukee, is superior to almost any woodwork we have ever seen; the case is remarkably handsome, of gothic style, with workmanship on the exterior resembling a piano in finish. The case is grained to imitate rosewood. The graining was done by Mr. ARTHUR DADD, of this city, and is a fine piece of work, and a close imitation of rosewood.

Monsieur LE DROIT, we understand, has superintended the building of some of the largest Organs in the United States, and stands at the head of his profession as an organ builder. The one just completed, and now on exhibition on Michigan Street, where the builders will be happy to show it to the public, is an evidence of his and his partner's skill. We listened for some time yesterday to the organist employed by the builders, who obliged us with several tunes, both sacred and secular. His name is HALL; he is an excellent organist. The solo stops, wald flute, and melodia were exceedingly fine, while the hautboy and dulciana were, without exception, the best and softest music we have heard. The whole of the pipes are voiced in the most skillful and scientific manner, each stop blending sweetly together, producing great power and effect with no harsh or disagreeable sound. This appeared to us to be a great advantage in this organ, that the power and the melody increased in harmony.

Mr. HALL, the organist, is in attendance throughout the day, to exhibit the organ, and will play at intervals to gratify visitors. Several organists of this city have already visited the workshop where the organ was made, and is being exhibited, on the corner of Milwaukee and Michigan streets, and among them the organist of St. Paul's Church, who expressed an opinion that it was remarkable for sweetness of sound, and has, we understand, intimated the necessity of some alterations in the organ of St. Paul's Church to be made by these builders.

The public should call on Messrs. O'BRIEN & LE DROIT, they will be glad to see them; and exhibit their Church Organ.

AN INTERESTING LECTURE.—It will be noticed that the Rev. C. S. MACREADING accepts the invitation of a number of our citizens, to deliver a Lecture on the Philosophy of Sleep, on Tuesday evening next. The Free Democrat of last evening makes the following remarks relative to this Lecture, with which we fully concur:

The subject, it will be readily noticed, involves the whole realm of the mind's action, and has employed in its investigations the acutest and ablest intellects of the world. No broader or better foundation for an instructive and interesting lecture, could have been selected, and we have little doubt that the Milwaukee lecture going public will find it a rare treat. Some other considerations, should influence a full house on this occasion. The Reverend gentleman who proposes the lecture has labored in good works in our midst upon a bare living compensation for some time past, and now finds himself out of employment, though not out of his usual expenses. Patronage on this occasion then, while it will receive a direct equivalent in the lecture, is merited by labors already performed, and the circumstances under which it is solicited.

BACK NUMBERS OF GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—Mr. ELLIS, the well known newspaper and periodical agent, informs us that he can supply subscribers to the Lady's Book, with any back numbers for '58, which they may have failed to receive, or have lost, by being applied to early.—The Lady's Book has become a standard publication, and it is greatly prized by the fair ones, for whose amusement and use it is especially designed. It is elegantly printed, and illustrated with beautiful engravings. The fashion plates are got up with great skill, and this part of the work is not the least interesting to the ladies.—Mr. ELLIS will be happy to furnish the magazine, or any back numbers of it for this year, to all who will leave their orders at the store of JAS. HARSHAW, 226 East Water street.

THE CLEVELAND CONFIDENCE MAN, OTIS.—The would be smart individual, who now awaits his trial in our jail, an account of whose operations we gave the other day, it seems belongs, or did once belong, to Cleveland. The Herald, hearing of his doings in this city, thus speaks of him:

From time to time we have chronicled the operations of W. F. Otis, formerly of this city, but who has lately been making bungling attempts to "play sharp" on the police of different cities in the West. His intellect evidently is not of so high an order as the business he has adopted requires, and his schemes so far have turned out miserable failures. His career is probably now brought to a close for a few years.

SUSPECTED INCENDIARYISM.—Mr. GEO. SOUTHWELL, whose property was destroyed by fire on Wednesday afternoon, informs us that there were no shavings in his shop, and no one had been smoking there the day it was burned, and he thinks there is no question but that the fire was the work of some designing villain.

Circular of the Milwaukee Banks.

At a meeting of the Banks of this city, held at the State Bank of Wisconsin, on Monday evening, the 16th of August, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed, who shall have the full authority to confer and negotiate with the Banks of this State located at remote points for the more purpose of circulation, in view of having them redeem their issues at some central point, and to report the result of their negotiations at the earliest possible time.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 17, 1858

DEAR SIR:—We are advised that the Banks of Chicago have this day discredited a large number of the Banks of this State by refusing to receive their notes, alleging as a reason, their incovertibility into Gold or Eastern Exchange when required, from their being located at remote points generally inaccessible for the purpose of Exchange or Redemption. It is to be regretted that so large a proportion of the circulating Banks have made such locations as to suffer discredit, and thereby involve in a general distrust, all the Banks of the State; to guard against the effects which this distrust will produce, the Banks of this city have determined to continue to receive the notes of all the Banks of this State and have appointed the following Committee to address the Banks referred to and request them to make immediate arrangements for the redemption of their issues at some central and convenient point, by either giving Exchange on New York, or Gold, upon favorable terms.

If any of the banks are unable to furnish exchange or gold, we would suggest that a responsible party be selected at Madison, who shall have authority to retire the circulation and redeem by selling the securities received from the Comptroller, as we feel satisfied this course would be more profitable to the owners of the bank, than to have the bills protested, and in this way the securities would be gradually thrown upon the market, and be sold for the highest price; whereas, if notes are protested and the Bank closed up by the Comptroller, all the securities would be sold at one time, which would tend to depreciate them, together with the expenses of the Comptroller and costs and damages of protest, would leave but a little amount, if anything, to the owners of the Bank, even with the present price of securities.

We would again say, it is the determination of the Banks of this city to continue to take the notes of all the Wisconsin Banks at par, and if an amicable arrangement cannot be made by which the notes of the class of Banks will be redeemed, as a matter of self-protection, the Banks of this city are obliged, and will return it for legal redemption, and let the law take its course.

Your neglect to comply with the request immediately, will be taken as a refusal to enter into either of the arrangements proposed.

Yours respectfully,

M. S. SCOTT,

The Jail-Jail Birds and what to do with Them.

MR. EDITOR:—Now that public attention is so thoroughly drawn to the loathsome condition of our jail, would it not be as well to consider some practical means of relieving it of a portion of its over-crowded tenants, as to discuss solely the necessity of building a new one? A new one is needed, of that there is no question. But it is with the old one we now have to deal, and we must make the best of it. It is safe to say that three fourths of the persons in that institution are able-bodied men and women,—to whom active labor would be a healthy punishment—capable of earning enough to pay the expenses attending their arrest, trial and imprisonment, and there is no reason—sensible, humane, or economical—why they should not be made to do it. Is there any better reason why the whole burthen of support and punishment of criminals should rest upon the innocent? Should a man, who don't get drunk and don't whip his wife to the point of death, be compelled to pay the fine imposed upon the man who does, by supporting him quite comfortably in the County Jail, until by a facetious legal faction, he has eaten pork and beans enough, and passed lazy days enough there to pay the penalty of his crimes?—Our present practice seems to give an affirmative answer to the query.

Now we would propose that these criminals be punished in a manner that would conduce to the benefit of the public and relieve them, in a great measure, from the burthen of supporting them, that the able bodied men, under sentence for offences within the jurisdiction of the Police Magistrate, be put upon the streets, to work out the days of their probation in mending the public thoroughfares, under the direction of the Street Commissioners, and subject to such metallic restraint as would prevent their departure beyond the jurisdiction of said magistrate.—Every motive for the punishment of offences, would seem to recommend this plan. The restraining influence of example, the dread of a second term, the health and well-being of the prisoners, the relief to an over-taxed population, the internal improvements and adornments of city, all speak in favor of such a system. Let it be tried. Other cities are adopting this system, and it works admirably, as a restraint upon petty criminals, as lessening the load of municipal taxation, and as a means of improving the appearance of the public thoroughfares. Is there any well founded objection to this plan?

MR. EDITOR:—"A Fireman" in last evening's Wisconsin scolds the Sentinel for giving No. 1 the credit of the first stream on the fire, Tuesday night. Had he read the Sentinel of yesterday, he would have seen that the mistake was corrected long before his communication appeared.

He next proceeds to give a "correct statement of the positions" of the different engines, and falls immediately into a blunder. He says that No. 1 played into No. 5. Not so; No. 1 played into No. 6, for a short time, and No. 6 being out of order, No. 5 took her place. Those who are so censorious of others, should be careful not to make mistakes themselves.

Meeting of the Bar.

Pursuant to the call of the President, a meeting of the Bar of Milwaukee County was held at the office of J. E. ARNOLD, Esq., on Thursday afternoon, at half past two o'clock, to make arrangements for the funeral of the late Judge WELLS.

The President, J. E. ARNOLD, Esq., took the Chair, and JNO. A. SAVAGE, Jr., was appointed Secretary pro tem.

The President then stated the object of the meeting. On motion of H. L. PALMER, Esq., a committee on resolutions was appointed by the Chair, consisting of Messrs. PALMER, RYAN and BUTRICK.

The following resolutions were reported by the committee, and unanimously adopted viz:

Resolved, That in the death of HORATIO N. WELLS, late County Judge of this County, this Bar recognize the loss of a brother, once among the most distinguished lawyers of the North-West, and most eminent public men of Wisconsin.

Resolved, That although since Judge WELLS retired from the bench, he abstained from all active professional duties, and was secluded by his infirmities from public view, yet some of us remember with personal recollection, the rest of us by the traditions of the Bar, and all of us with reverent affection, that it is yet but a few years since he stood foremost in our profession, full of the light of life and genious, of ready resource, genial humor and electric wit, a sound lawyer, astrong, vigorous, eloquent advocate, gifted beyond all his other qualities with a high and generous sense of honor, which put him far above all the temptations of the profession, and with a warm, generous, genial heart, which won the love of all who knew him.

Resolved, That the members of this Bar will wear the badge of mourning for thirty days, will take charge of the funeral of our deceased brother, and will attend the same in a body.

Resolved, That the chair appoint a committee of three to make all the necessary arrangements under the last resolution.

Resolved, That we return our thanks to the President of this Bar for his prompt and affectionate attendance, on the death bed of our late brother, and adopt all the arrangements made by him.

The committee also reported the following, which was adopted:

DIED.

In this city, yesterday morning, SARAH, wife of the HON. GARRET M. FITZGERALD, aged 45 years.

The numerous friends of the worthy lady whose death is chronicled above, will hear this sad intelligence with heart-felt regret. For eighteen years MRS. FITZGERALD had been a resident of Wisconsin, and by her exemplary devotion as a wife and mother, her rigid and sincere performance of her Christian duties, her numerous, generous and judicious silent charities, and by her general goodness of heart and strong native common sense, she secured many deeply attached friends both in the city and county of Milwaukee. To them, and more especially to her husband and children, her sudden and unexpected demise is a most serious affliction.

The funeral will take place at St. John's Cathedral, on Sunday afternoon next, at 1 o'clock, and the friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.

Thomas Allsop, the alleged conspirator against the life of Napoleon, went out as a passenger in the Persia yesterday.

The investigation, yesterday, of the Committee of the celebration into the cause of the fire at the City Hall, did not lead to any satisfactory results. There is strong reason for believing that the fire was set. Mr. Edge, the pyrotechnist, stated that after the illumination and fireworks were all over, he went over the whole building and found everything safe. It is now thought that $50,000 will be required to make the necessary repairs to the Hall.

Morganheim, the young man who killed his sweetheart, and afterwards shot him off, died yesterday morning.

The Joint Committee on the cable celebration, had a meeting to-day, and fixed upon the 1st of September for the Grand Celebration; it was also decided to send a despatch to the Lord Mayor and Common Council of London, informing them of the fact. The British born people this city intend to have a special celebration of the event, and a meeting was held to-day to take the initiative steps in the matter.

The frigate Niagara has been examined and pronounced to be in good condition, and to have sustained no injury during her cable expedition. Some alterations, however, are to be made in her rig. Her spars have been proven to be too light for her, and will be changed to heavy ones. Her crew will be removed to the North Carolina, where those whose terms have expired will be paid off, and the remainder attached to other vessels.

Some $60,000 of the amount stolen from the Hatters Bank, of Bethel, Conn., in bills on that Bank, have been conveyed, in a mysterious manner to the police of this city, the holders doubtless not finding them a merchantable commodity.

Military Celebration.

PORTLAND, Aug. 19.

One of the most imposing military demonstrations ever had in the State, took place in this city yesterday, on the reception of the Montreal Rifle corps. The day's proceedings ended by a levee at the residence of the Major. During the review several persons were accidentally shot.—Lieut. Proctor of the Boston Fusileers, received a blank cartridge in his arm, Charles Sutherland, member of the Highlanders, was shot in the thigh, and corporal Lanlier of the Montreal Rifles, narrowly escaped death, a charge passing through his chapeau.

Michigan Republican State Conventions.

DETROIT, Aug. 18.

The Republican State Convention assembled in this city to-day, and organized by the appointment of Austin Blair, of Jackson County, President. After disposing of unimportant business the Convention proceeded to the nomination of State Officers, which as far as made are as follows:—For Governor, Moses Wisner, of Oakland Co. For Lieut. Governor, E. B. Fairfield, of Hillsdale Co. For Secretary of State, Nelson G. Isbell, of Livingston Co. The Convention is in session this evening, and will not probably conclude its business until to-morrow.

ALBANY, Aug. 19.

To the Hon. Daniel F. Tieman:

Albany will joyfully respond to her sister cities. Our celebration on the 1st of September, shall be, so far as we can make it, equal to the great and glorious triumph of science which it is designated to consummate. Signed.

The edge tool factory, of Barton, on Brown race, and a building adjoining, formerly a cotton factory, were burned last night. Loss $30,000, insured for $5,000.

New York City Hall Partially Burned.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.

About ten minutes past 12 o'clock last night, a fire broke out at the base of the cupola and look-out on the City Hall. The flames were first supposed to be some fire-works let off by the residents of the Hall.

Randall's Scheme Defeated.

The supporters of Gov. Randall in this city know that his designs to deprive the La Crosse Company of the land, to which they are entitled for the completion of sixty continuous miles of the land grant road, is already defeated by the decision of the Secretary of the Interior. We know that the project of Governor Randall received its death blow when that decision was made. If the decision had been otherwise, and in accordance with the views entertained by Randall and his friends, he would have called an extra session of the legislature to convene for the purpose of disposing of the land grant.—News of yesterday.

What the News hopes to effect by its persistent and palpable fabrications in regard to Gov. RANDALL, is beyond our guess; but what it has effected is plain enough. With the exception of one or two papers on the line of the La Crosse road, and those in this city, the entire press of the State approve the decision of the Governor and do justice to the motives which actuated him; and the violent and abusive assaults of the News and Wisconsin have undoubtedly helped to confirm and strengthen this feeling.—The assertions made by the News in the paragraph above quoted are purely fictitious. The supporters of Gov. RANDALL in this city know perfectly well that he never entertained a design to deprive the La Crosse Company of the Land Grant; or dreamed of calling the Legislature together in extra session, for the purpose of disposing of it. And as to the decision of the Secretary of the Interior, it does not affect, in any way, the action, or opinions of the Governor, or the claim of the La Crosse Company to a portion of the public lands.

THE NEWS AND THE CABLE.—The unbelieving Thomas of the News has finally become satisfied that the Queen's Message was not a sell and that the Atlantic Telegraph is a success. The wide-awake correspondent who cautioned the Milwaukee public not to be "hoaxed" by the Sentinel late celebrating the great event, has also changed his views and is now content to believe, with the rest of mankind, in the consummation of the enterprise. The News takes comfort, however, in the thought that it had indulged in no such "rapid nonsense," about the completion of the cable, as it charges upon the Sentinel and Wisconsin. And its correspondent consoles himself with the reflection that other "great men" have made erroneous predictions and lived to correct their opinions. It would be cruel to deny, either to the News or its correspondent, whatever crumbs of comfort they can derive from these sources, after they have been so generally laughed at for their dogmatic incredulity.

The Village of Ironton, Sauk County.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Permit me to invite the attention of your readers to the village of Ironton, Sauk Co., Wisconsin. A recent visit convinced me that too little is known of this "Hive of Industry." Residing at a distance of only 25 miles from this three-year-old town, and having a personal acquaintance with the pioneer of the enterprise, I was yet ignorant of the importance of the place, and the interests centering there; until a personal examination opened my eyes to the facts. Every friend of our noble State, should be proud to know, that the manufacture of iron is to be one of the principal items in our future sources of wealth.

With lead, copper, and iron, added to our inexhaustible supplies of lumber, and rich fields of agriculture, where is the State on the American continent, that can furnish more material with which to buy money? All honor, then, to the men who develop our resources!

MR. JONAH TOWER, of Ironton, has quietly and successfully brought forth "treasures hid in the sand." He is also happy to exhibit them to all who will visit this hitherto terra incognita.

From a massive pile of masonry, built of stones "from the adjacent cliffs," there is poured out daily, about four tons of liquid iron, which, when cooled and broken, presents a surface, which to the practiced eye of the Iron-Founder, is perfectly satisfying. Some of your Milwaukee Founders and Machinists already understand its properties; they are nearly identical with the iron made at Crown Point, on Lake Champlain, N. Y. The ore for this iron is mined, (or rather shoveled up) at a short distance from the furnace, and brought on an easy grade to the works, and melted in a "hot blast" poured into the "Stack" among charcoal that was made under the supervision of this same indefatigable proprietor.

The machinery that "propels" the entire works is of the most perfect character, and is the handiwork of this same "Daniel Boyce," who regards its operation with looks of pleasure and satisfaction. No "clanking or groaning" here; but every movement is like that gate described by MILTON, "on golden hinges turning." There is a "cupola" connected with the Blast Furnace, where the metal, being melted, is cast into the "one thousand and one" forms, demanded by our civilization. Pattern making and stove mounting, are carried on in well arranged shops, at a short distance from the foundry. Also a machine shop, a few hundred yards off, is filled with "enginery" that seems instinct with life.—A flouring mill, and a sawmill of superior workmanship, is in active operation, furnishing breadstuffs and lumber to the inhabitants of this part of the Baraboo Valley. These mills are also the property of Mr. TOWER. Lime and brick kilns on his lands, furnish (with the excellent stone, everywhere abundant) the cheapest and best building material that could be desired.

With pure soft water, icy cold, literally gushing from the sandstone ledges, or welling up to the surface of the natural meadows, forming rivulets, that go dancing and singing towards the river, makes the whole neighborhood a desirable place for a residence. The quality of the soil is unsurpassed in the State. The mingling of grove and wood land, with natural meadows, and these bounded by hills, or threaded by streams, make the place one of rare beauty.

Every true picture has its shadows. One shadow in this is the present want of good roads, to connect with the outside world. Seven or eight miles of smooth and level road for wagons, and then the completion of the M. W. & B. V. R. R. would dissipate this shadow. Another shadow at present, rests upon a branch of business here. The L. C. & M. R. R. charge the same price per ton for transporting Pig-iron from Kilbourn City to Milwaukee, as it does for bringing Merchandize from Milwaukee to Kilbourn.—Should that be so? Merchandize occupies vastly more space, and requires box cars and Depot buildings, (and wears them out too,) beside consuming a great deal of time and care in "handling."

A few square yards of land along a side-track, is all the warehousing Pig-iron wants. A "platform car," such as the company use for gravel and wood, is the best for iron. And one quarter of time employed in loading and unloading Merchandise will suffice for Iron, to say nothing of the care in "handling," and the use of trucks.—Milwaukee needs this Iron, (on account of its superior quality,) but Mr. T. is obliged to manufacture it into forms that will make it worth more per pound, in order to make it "bear transportation." Competing Rail Roads will correct this evil.

With so many branches of business, demanding constant oversight, the mental and physical powers of one man must be taxed to a fearful extent. Impressed with this thought, and the belief that a small company of capitalists should be the owners of the Foundry, and drive the works to their utmost capacity, I enquired concerning Mr. TOWER's disposition to sell, and learned that he would be glad to do so, so far as the Foundry is concerned. There is a mine of wealth there for young and enterprising capitalists disposed to enter the arena of business. To any who would like to see for themselves how labor brings its reward, I would commend them to the hospitalities of the proprietor of Ironton, and his excellent lady, whose large, warm heart, is as sweetly earnest, as her voice and countenance.

Yours for WISCONSIN.

Baraboo, August 17th, 1858.

MILWAUKEE AS SEEN BY AN EASTERN MAN.—A correspondent of the Oswego Commercial Times, writing from Milwaukee, expresses a very high opinion of our city. His views, however, correspond with those of all unprejudiced Eastern men visiting the "cream colored city." He says:

Milwaukee, with her Eastern spirit and enterprise, now contains some 50,000 inhabitants, and is really a fine, thrifty Western city, in many respects superior to Chicago, particularly as a residence, and where business is conducted on a much more healthy and round basis, with far less of the Wall street mode of doing business, so prevalent at this time in Chicago. This city has numerous fine streets, and many of them filled with elegant buildings, both as places of business and pleasant healthy residences. Here you find the cream-colored brick, so peculiar to Milwaukee, which the more you see of them the better you like them. Milwaukee is built upon high, rolling ground susceptible of drainage in most parts of the city, and is laid out and built up, thus far, in good taste. At this point centers a large and growing trade, not only from the State of Wisconsin, but a liberal trade from Northern Iowa, and the country west, and also from Minnesota and Dacotah, with a handsome trade from northern portions of Michigan, together with her extensive Eastern trade generally.

Two prominent outlets to the West center here, the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad and the La Crosse Railroad, both tapping the Mississippi River some 90 miles apart, the one at Prairie du Chien, the other at La Crosse, together with their numerous connections with other roads in this State, as well as the contemplated ones west of the Mississippi and north to Lake Superior.

This city can hardly fail of being a much larger place, and must continue to grow rapidly for a long series of years, as she is the proper and natural outlet, not only for Wisconsin, but also for Minnesota, Northern Iowa, and portions of Nebraska, Dacotah, and the whole range of country west of these places to the base of the Rocky Mountains. This portion of the North-West, is beyond doubt, fully equal in point of richness and variety of soil and climate, to any other in the United States,—far surpassing most other sections in point of healthiness of the country.

DEATH OF THE MAYOR OF LOUISVILLE.—Gen. William S. Pitcher, Mayor of Louisville, died on the 14th inst., in the 54th year of his age. His health has been failing for a long time, and his decease was not unexpected. He was a native of Virginia, but had resided in Louisville for twenty-five years.

☞ At the last meeting of the Rhode Island Historical Society, Mr. Horatio G. Jones, of Philadelphia, read a paper claiming for Mr. Ebenezer Kinnersley, an Englishman, who settled in Philadelphia in 1714, the honor of originating Magnetic Telegraphs.

The Chicago Statement—Throwing out Wisconsin Banks.

We alluded yesterday to the accounts received from Chicago, that 26 Wisconsin banks had been thrown out. We again take up the matter, having derived additional information upon it, and we first caution the public against submitting themselves to panic or loss on account of this move of Chicago men. It is evidently not intended to bring these banks into permanent discredit, but it is an organized plan to create a temporary panic, make business lively, and a chance to buy up the discredited notes at a heavy discount.

This last effort is a peculiar one, when looked upon by an outsider, and needs some explanation to the uninitiated.

The fact is, Chicago brokers own more Wisconsin banks—all of which are of the most inferior kind—than any other three cities, and when these brokers discredit their own money (issued in a neighboring State to avoid gathering it) without an hour's notice last people should avail themselves of it, it is quite plain that their motive should be understood. It is only for the purpose of buying the notes at five or ten per cent less than their value and then call them all good again—as they really are.

While we deprecate the abuse of our most excellent Banking Law, and hope that soon it intent may be strictly carried out, we at the same time feel bound to announce the truth that the circulating notes of the banks of Wisconsin are all, perfectly secured to pay dollar for dollar, as they always have been what put to the test. By a careful examination of the specie deposited for the redemption of the selected "twenty-six," we find that their New York market value exceeds the amount of the circulation issued thereon, by over $120,000, exclusive of the justified and personal bonds of the stockholders which is the aggregate amount to upwards of $500,000.

We have no particular sympathy for banks—none whatever for "wild cats"—but the people who in this instance must be the greatest losers, in case of any loss, need to be informed before they submit to a broker's shave on money that is now, and always will be good as gold for all business purposes.

For proof of this assertion we have prepared a tabular statement showing the securities as given in the Bank Comptroller's report of August 1st

This shows that if every one of "the 26" were closed, and their stocks sold at N. Y. market price, to day, to redeem their circulation, there would remain, after all was redeemed $198,000. To get up a panic against such currency is simply ridiculous.—Madison Argus.

MURDER AT SHELLSBURG.—By the last number of the Local, we learn that one Robert McGettigan came to his death—as appears from the examination—by a wound made by a scythe in the hands of Edward Collett. The wound was a horrid one, being about three and one half inches wide, and penetrating nearly through his body. The murdered man drew the blade from his own body, after it had been there three or four minutes—lived long enough to tell who his murderer was, and then expired. He was examined before Justice Marvin, and remanded to jail to await a trial.

The same paper states that the Lafayette House was entered on Sunday night and over $200 and a gold watch taken away. The Local thinks the thieves should be arrested to a small portion of the exports of Shullsburg, propelled by a large quantity of Dupont's best." It is unquestionably right.

TRYING A DEAD WOMAN FOR CRIME.—A very singular occurrence, says the Philadelphia Ledger, in the administration of justice, happened recently in the Court of Quarter Sessions in that city. It was the trial of an offender against the laws nearly a month after the death of the individual. Death is usually considered a liquidation of all indebtedness, and the person of the debtor is consecrated, but offended justice is not so easily satisfied, and while it frequently allows a living criminal to escape with impunity, it not willing to release a dead one from accountability. An unfortunate woman, accused of Arson, died in the county prison on the 4th of last July. Notwithstanding this fact was duly made known to the officers of the law, and which should have been sufficient to have quashed all proceedings against her, the unfortunate criminal was arraigned a month afterwards, a plea of not guilty entered, and she was acquitted.

THE TELEGRAPH AND THE BIBLE.—"Canst thou send lightnings that they may go, and say unto thee, Here we are?"

"Who hath divided a water course for a way for the lightning?"

"The Lord on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea."

"He made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning."

"He directed his lightnings unto the ends of the earth."

"The lightning cometh out of the East, and shineth even unto the West."

"His lightnings enlighten the world."

"Their lines is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world."—Psalm xix, 4.

☞ Let us adopt the love of peace, that Christ may recognize his own, even as we recognize him to be the teacher of peace.

The Great Issue.

When the English Bill was pending before Congress, Governor Walker made two predictions, if the bill passed:

1st. That the Lecompton Constitution would be rejected by an overwhelming majority of the people of Kansas, and of every county of Kansas.

2d. That the Territorial Legislature of Kansas, elected in October next, upon its assembling next January, would call a Convention of Delegates, to be chosen by the people of Kansas, which Convention would frame a Constitution, and submit it to the vote of the people for ratification or rejection; that it would be ratified by an overwhelming majority of the people of Kansas, and submitted for the action of Congress in December, 1859.

The first of these predictions is already verified. The people of Kansas, by a majority, it is believed, in every county, have rejected the Lecompton Constitution. The criminal has been tried and condemned by the only competent tribunal, the people of Kansas. The charges of fraud, forgery and perjury, preferred by Walker and Stanton in their official proclamations against Lecompton, have been submitted to the electors of Kansas, and the verdict of guilt and infamy has been rendered. Who so bold as now to assert that the Lecompton Constitution ever was the choice of the people of Kansas? Who so reckless as now to deny that Congress was asked and urged by the Administration, to force this Constitution upon the people of Kansas, against their will? Nay, more—to make it a test of Democracy, and ostracise all who would not endorse these detestable frauds and forgeries?

Now, the first prediction of Governor Walker as to the rejection of Lecompton has been fully verified. But what as to the second? Will they now proceed, without a census, and frame a new Constitution and send it ratified by the people of Kansas for the action of Congress?—We think this will be done, thus stamping with falsehood the pretence that the people of Kansas do not now desire to become a State. And what then? Will Congress admit them without a census showing the population to exceed 93,000? They agreed to admit them under the Lecompton Constitution without a census, showing but 24,000 people; and will they reject them when having certainly a much larger population.

The restriction in the latter clause of the English bill is not binding upon this Congress, much less upon the next; it can be repealed or disregarded by Congress, and we have no doubt Kansas will be admitted in 1859, if the people will do their duty in the coming elections by voting for no man who favored the forcing, without submission of the Lecompton Constitution on the people of Kansas.

Trust no such men, whatever their present pledges may be. They violated the most solemn pledges of the canvass of 1856—they betrayed their constituents. They took the executive county in 1858, and would do so again in 1859. Well, let us suppose a new Constitution without a census ratified by the people of Kansas, and accepted by Congress in 1859. Will it receive the sanction of the President, or his veto? We trust the former, but fear the latter.—The same dissolute organs of the South, whose threats and opposition drove the President from his position in 1856 and 1857, and caused him to abandon the doctrine enunciated in his instructions to Governor Walker, we fear will precipitate the result in 1859. Indeed, this is said to be part of the bargain. And what next? Why, if the President veto such a bill, he will renew the Kansas question in its most distinct form; he will make it the direct issue of the Presidential election of 1860, which must be decided by the American people. How it will be decided it were insanity to doubt. Lecomptonism and Lecomptonites will be swept beneath the surges of popular indignation, and they will share the fate which must ever await treason to self-government, in every Republic where the people are enlightened and incorruptible.—Phila. Press.

THE CLEVELAND SCHOONER JOHN F. WARNER IN GREENOCK.—By the last steamer's mail, a letter has been received by A. Handy Esq., owner, from Capt. Charles Gale, of the schooner John F. Warner, then at Greenock, Firth of Clyde, Western coast of Scotland. The letter bears date July 26th. Capt Charley says that on the 25th and 26th, on his passage from Liverpool, he encountered a gale so severe, that it sunk several vessels below Liverpool. He is of the opinion that he don't want to meet any more such.

The Warner was 26 days from Quebec to Liverpool, and had two days calm, four of head wind, on the ocean, and three days of head wind in the Channel. A boat was carried at the davits the entire voyage.

T. P. Handy Esq., had arrived at Greenock, and sent Capt. Gale to Glasgow, to look for freight to Montreal, but he says he found so many vessels there up for that port that he gave up all hopes. Mr. Handy therefore concluded to buy 800 tons of pig iron for Cleveland. The staves were sold by Mr. Handy to his satisfaction.

The Captain says that when he left Liverpool, Her Majesty's 91 gun ship Hastings was just moored. The Warner went up, ran up Jeseward, and sent up the "grid iron," which salutation the Frigate returned. The Warner then ran by her and went to windward, and although the other crowned all canvas, the little Clevelander distanced her four miles in three hours. The Warner sails faster in salt than in fresh water, and has beaten everything she came in company with. At date of writing, Capt. Gale had received no letters from America.—Cleveland Herald.

DEATH OF CAPT. CLIFFORD BELDEN.—Another of the pioneers of Cleveland, Capt. Clifford Belden, has departed this life. He was found dead in his room in the Johnson House, at about one o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was lying upon his back when found; having fallen evidently while in the act of combing his hair, before going to his dinner. His death was caused by disease of the heart, of which he had complained for some time past, and with which he was severely attacked on Friday night last. An hour before his decease he was in the street in apparently his usual health.

Capt. Belden was a native of the State of Connecticut, and had reached the good old age of seventy-four years. He was a ship carpenter by trade, and sailed in an American vessel from Portland, Maine, in that capacity during the last war with Great Britain, and was captured by the British. He was confined on the island of Bermuda over eleven months, and suffered severely from rigorous treatment at the hands of his captors during that time. On his release in the autumn of the year of 1814, Capt Belden came to Cleveland. Since then he has been Captain of vessels upon the Lakes—and was the composer of Capt. Shephard, Capt. Blake, and others.—Latterly he has not been in good health, and his sudden demise was not entirely unexpected either to himself or his friends. He will be buried at two o'clock this afternoon, and his remains attended to the grave by the Masonic Fraternity, in accordance with a wish he himself left upon the books of Cleveland City Lodge, of which he was a member.—Cleveland Leader.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN AMERICAN AND ENGLISH RAILROAD IRON.—The chief engineer of the Reading railroad has prepared a comparative table, showing the per centage of wear and tear, and the proportion of breakage of the English and American rails. On the sixty pound rail the wear on the English was thirty-seven to forty-seven, on the American fourteen to twelve per cent: the breakage on the English one bar in 39 to one in 82, and on the American one bar in one hundred and twenty-seven to one in three hundred and forty-three. It is stated that the current purchases of cheap rails in England, for American roads are made of one-third cinder and slag. The scraps of the former forgings and railings is thrown into the new work, and the slag and the cinders in which the proportion of silica renders the iron wholly unfit for purposes requiring strength and solidity, are reworked with a share of new iron to fill the American contracts at low prices. Boiler plates are also manufactured of iron of the most inferior description.

JAPANESE GARDENERS.—The gardeners in Japan display the most astonishing art. The plum tree, which is a great favorite, is so trained and cultivated that the blossoms are as big as those of dahlias. Their great triumph, however, is to bring forth plants and trees into the compass of the little gardens attached to the houses in the cities. With this view they have gradually succeeded in bringing the fig, plum, and cherry tree, and the vine to a stature so diminutive as scarcely to be credited by a European, and yet those dwarf trees are covered with blossoms and leaves. Marion, whose work on Japan was published in Amsterdam in 1830, states that the Dutch agent of commerce, in Nagenei, was offered a small box one inch in thickness and three high, in which grew a fig-tree, a bamboo, and a pitch tree in a bloom. Some of the gardens resemble pictures, in which nature is skilfully modeled in miniature—but it is living, natural.

THE CROPS OF MINNESOTA.—In order to remove the apprehensions that seem to be felt that our crops are to come out rather feeble this fall, we copy from numerous country papers in reference to the harvests in their localities. It will be seen from these extracts that, though in some places by heavy rains, &c., the crops are somewhat scant, yet in others they have done remarkably well. And though they in general by no means compare with the unprecedented harvests of last fall, yet there is "enough and to spare," and the labors of the husbandman have been rewarded in most respects sufficiently to afford encouragement and gratefulness.—St. Paul Minnesotian, 17th.

City Assessment.

The following is the assessment just completed in this city:

	Real Estate.	Personal Property.	Total
1st Ward,	929,950	254,826	1,114,776
2d "	645,551	157,075	852,626
3d "	800,803	99,010	899,013
4th "	517,971	141,654	567,625

The aggregate of the assessment of property in this city is somewhat larger than we had expected, but we have no reason to suppose that it is greater than it should be. We believe that the utmost care has been taken by the assessors, and that their laborious duty has been faithfully and conscientiously performed. The result shows the imperfection of the old law, and the injustice that has been done to owners of real estate by the neglect to report herefofore the whole of the personal property liable to taxation. It will be seen that the returns of personal property is nearly nine times greater than last year, or[an addition of over six hundred and twenty five thousand dollars to the tax roll from personal property alone. It seems to us that this alone demonstrates the great necessity there was of a change in the assessment law; and although we have repeatedly stated that the new law was liable to objections and needed amendment, still it is obviously an improvement upon the old law.

It is apparent that real estate owners must be much benefitted by bringing so large an additional amount of property upon the assessment roll which has heretofore escaped taxation. Men of moderate means, and the most of that in small homesteads, have heretofore borne the chief burden of taxation, while the money lender and the owners of certain kinds of personal property have escaped almost entirely. Any law which will thus tend to equalize taxation, although it may not be perfection, should be acknowledged for the benefit which it confers. We think that if the assessment under the law had been performed in good faith throughout the state we should not have had any trouble.—We understand that our assessors have met with very little difficulty in the discharge of their duties, and we do not see why it could not have been as successfully done in all parts of the state. From our experience in this city we think, with some amendments, the law will be pronounced a good one, and that the principle upon which it is founded will be adhered to in all future assessment laws in this state.—Janesville Gazette.

☞ The editor of the Eutaw Whig has been informed by a gentlemen recently from Arkansas, that John Bass, who was notorious in that part of Alabama, some two to five years ago, was hanged in that State about three months since, for murdering and robbing a tax collector. While on the gallows he confessed that after he left Alabama he murdered three men for their money, besides the one for which he was executed. Bass murdered a negro in Tuscaloosa Co., some years since, but escaped punishment by changing venue to Pickens, where he whipped another one to death, and to escape punishment, fled to Arkansas, where he at last met the fate he had so long justly merited.—Vicksburg Southron.

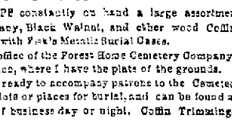
LECTURES ON THE EYE.

STRABISMUS, or Cross Eye, may be defined to be a want of harmony between the two eyes, which exists to such an extent that one of them does not move with the other, but is turned away involuntarily to the other side.

This affection so apparent as scarcely to require explanation, and is a most unpleasant defect, particularly to young people, and never fails to impair the sight more or less.

It consists essentially of a contraction of one of the six muscles which fix the ball as represented in the cut.



The operation is usually performed by me, in a few seconds, and is always entirely successful, both in relieving the deformity and improving the vision to a great degree.

Operations for Cataract, Artificial pupil, &c., scientifically and successfully performed.

French artificial eyes inserted without operation or pain, having the appearance and all the motions of the natural eye.

Proceedings of the Board of Supervisors for Milwaukee County.

July 20th, 1858.

Board met pursuant to adjournment. President, Messrs. Barndt, Carroll, Douglas, Daggett, De Vos, Conrad, Egan, Everts, Howes, Keough, Niedermann, Plankinton, Walsh and Tobin.

On motion of Mr. Walsh, the reading of the minutes of the last session, was dispensed with.

Sundry accounts were presented, and, on motion, referred to the appropriate committees.

A petition of F. Wagoner, and one of P. Marky, were, on motion of Mr. Plankinton, referred to the Committee on Assessment and Equalization.

A communication of Mrs. Clark, submitted by Mr. Carroll, was, after being read, on motion of Mr. Plankinton, tabled.

Mr. Egan moved that the vote of laying said communication on the table, be re-considered; which motion, on a call for the ayes and noes, was carried by the following vote:

On motion of Mr. Walsh, said communication was referred to the Committee on Superintendents of the Poor.

The Special Committee, appointed at the last session of the Board of Supervisors for Milwaukee County, for the purpose of examining grounds for the erection of new County Buildings, and the cost thereof, have had the same under consideration, and respectfully beg leave to submit the following report:

First, Your committee have received a communication in writing from Cicero Comstock, Esq., in which he offers to donate to the county of Milwaukee, Block No. 24, in the Sixth Ward, fronting on what is called Court Square, for the location of the new county buildings, the only consideration he requires will be one dollar paid in hand and the building or buildings thereon, to be erected in a reasonable time.

Second, Your committee have received a communication from certain citizens in the Fourth Ward, who are large property owners in said Ward, in which they agree to procure for the county of Milwaukee, a title in fee simple of the south half of block seventy-six (76), in said Ward. Also to procure of Byron Kilbourn, and others of the original owners, the right to use forever for the purpose of placing the said buildings, or a part of thereon, to the north half of said block seventy-six (76), the balance laying open as a public park. The whole of said block contains about five acres of land; said parties also agree to fill the whole of said block to the established grade without expense to the county.

The consideration required for the above mentioned property, will be fifteen thousand dollars in Milwaukee County Bonds.

Third, The Committee went to the owners of the balance of the block where the old Court House stands; in the Seventh Ward, residents in the city, and inquired on what terms they would sell their property.

Dr. Tracy offers to sell his lot on the corner of Jackson and Biddle streets, 60 feet front by 87 feet in depth, with a good brick house and barn on said lot, for the sum of $13,000 to wit: There is a mortgage of $1,000 against said lot which the County can assume. He will take $12,000 in County Bonds drawing 10 per cent interest, or $12,000 in cash if the contract is closed within fifteen days.

Col. John White agrees to sell to the County of Milwaukee, lot seven (7,) block seventy-one (71,) corner of Jefferson and Biddle streets, 60 feet wide by 127 feet long, for the sum of $9,000 $4,000 to be paid in cash and the balance in County Bonds.

Garrett M. Fitzgerald agrees to sell his property in said block for the sum of $11,000 one half to be paid in cash and the other half in County Bonds.

There is forty by sixty feet of the west end of Dr. Tracy's lot, belonging to a non-resident of this city, which the committee are informed can be purchased for the sum of $1,000.

There is also a fractional lot, about 30 feet, front situated between White and Fitzgerald's, lots owned by a Mr. Gilman, of New York, which the committee are informed can be purchased for about $4,000. Henry K. White agrees to quit-claim to the County of Milwaukee, the reversionary interest of Solomon Juneau and Morgan L. Martin, to the public square in front of the Court House, and also the ground on which the Court House now stands, for the sum $3000.

Total amount required to purchase old site will be $40,000.

PATRICK WALSH,
WM. H. LINDWURM,
THOS. CARROLL,
J. A. PHELPS,
Committee.

Mr. Phelps moved that said report be accepted; which motion prevailed.

Mr. Phelps offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Board consider the grounds offered by parties in the Fourth Ward a very proper location for the County Buildings, and will, so far as in the power of this Board, agree to locate the County Buildings thereon. Provided, That the conditions proffered by citizens of the Fourth Ward, shall be properly secured, to the satisfaction of this Board.

Mr. Daggett moved to amend said resolution, by striking out, in the third line from the top, the words "proper location."

To which amendment Mr. Keough offered the following amendment:

Resolved, That the members of this Board take it into consideration of the propriety of taking any steps that, in their opinion, they would hereafter regret, before they vote on a resolution to shift the County Buildings to any other Ward, before they can ascertain what action the citizens and taxpayers, residents in the immediate locality, at the present site, will do towards helping to purchase out the present site. And therefore,

Resolved, That the report be recommitted to the committee to wait on the residents of the Block surrounding the present Court House, to see what donation they may be inclined to give towards purchasing out this present property, and report the same to this Board in one week from this date.

Pending said resolutions and amendments, Mr. Phelps moved that when this Board adjourn, it adjourn until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Phelps moved that his resolution together with the amendments be laid on the table; which motion was agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Conrad the Board adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

SOLE PROPRIETOR AND MANUFACTURER OF PURE OHIO
Catawba Brandy.

THIS Brandy has been manufactured for several years from the pure juice of the Catawba Grape, thus affording additional evidence, of the progress of the manufacture and the ripening of our ability to produce articles at home, equal to those made by any other nation.
The Ohio Catawba Brandy, not only equals but excels the best Imported Brandies, in purity and flavor. It is in fact the best Brandy known. This statement is fully corroborated by the certificates of our most distinguished analytical chemists.
The want of pure brandy has long been felt in this country, and the introduction of an article of such quality as to supercede the sale and use of those vile compounds hitherto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be regarded a great public good. The Catawba Brandy posses all the good qualities claimed for the best imported liquors, and is of perfect purity and superior flavor, and a sovereign and sure remedy for

VOLUME XV. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 20, 1858. NEW SERIES.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Common Council Proceedings.

PRESIDENT HADLEY PRESIDING.

On Wednesday night an adjourned meeting of the Board of Councillors was held.

All the members were present with the exception of Councillors Busach and Conrad.

Accounts were presented, and referred to appropriate committees. After the transaction of some other preliminary business the chair presented a remonstrance from Joshua Hathaway, against enforcing a resolution which had been adopted by both Boards of the Common Council, instructing the Chief of Police to cause the removal of a fence now standing on Elizabeth street, adjoining Clarke's addition, in the Fifth Ward. The vote by which the resolution was adopted, was reconsidered on motion of Councillor Humann, who then moved that the resolution be referred to the Joint Local Committee of the Fifth Ward; which was concurred in.

On motion of Councillor Humann, the resolution adopted at the last meeting, concurring with recommendation of Street Commissioners to grade Galena street, plank the sidewalk, &c., was reconsidered. The resolution was then recommitted to the Street Commissioners, with the request that they would consider the propriety of planking instead of grading the street in question.

Councillor Humann presented a resolution that the Chief of Police be instructed to suspend the execution of the order of this Board, relative to the removal of a fence on Elizabeth street, which was adopted. This resolution was afterwards reconsidered, and laid upon the table.

The Chair presented a recommendation from the Street Commissioners, that the crossing of Huron and Beach streets be graded, and a small sewer constructed at the same time, which was referred to the Local Committee of the Third Ward.

The Chair also presented a communication from the Chairman of the Committee on Plats, to whom had been referred a Map of the Sub-Division of Lot No. 22, in Block 198, Roger's Addition, First Ward, together with a resolution approving of the same, which was adopted.

Councillor Schulte, from the Local Committee of the First and Seventh Wards, to whom had been referred an ordinance for raising the grade of East Water and other streets, entitled "An ordinance to amend an ordinance, entitled an ordinance to amend an ordinance," and to on ad infinitum, to permanently establish the grade of certain streets in the First Ward, passed in 1853.

On motion of Councillor Schulte, the ordinance was read three times, and under a suspension of the rules was put upon its final passage, after some discussion, when the Board refused to pass it, by a tie vote.

The Committee on Taxes, to whom had been referred the petition of THOMAS ROUTLEDGE reported, recommending that the Treasurer be directed to refund to the petitioner the tax on M half of lot 10, block 16, in the Third Ward, the same being city property, which was concurred in.

A resolution was adopted, on recommendation of the Committee on Gas Lights, requesting the Fifth Ward Gas Co. to erect lamp posts on the corner of Greenbush and Oregon streets, and also on corner of Oregon and Monroe streets in the Fifth Ward, and provide the same with gas at the usual rate.

Councillor Hitzemann from the Select Committee, who had been appointed to confer with the Sisters of Charity, respecting the opening of Fifth Avenue through their grounds, reported that they had conferred with Bishop Henni and the Sisters, relative to the matter, and that they assured them that no objections would be made to the laying out of said avenue as proposed, and recommended that the City Attorney be instructed to draw up a suitable deed of same, to be executed by the members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society to the city. The report was concurred in, and an accompanying resolution relative to the laying out of this avenue, adopted.

Councillor McGrath from the Committee to whom was referred the communication of the Street Commissioners, recommending the grading of crossing of Huron & Buffalo streets, reported concurring with the same; which was adopted.

Councillor Humann presented an ordinance entitled an ordinance permanently to establish grade of certain streets in the Ninth Ward, which was read three times and under suspension of the rules passed.

The following ordinances were called from the table; namely, permanently to establish grade of Spring st. in Fourth Ward, which received its second and third readings and passed; an ordinance to repeal an ordinance entitled "an Ordinance to authorize the issue of city bonds," passed May 1858, which was read a second and third time and passed.

The chair offered a resolution declaring lots 1 and 2, in block 78, in the Seventh Ward a public nuisance, which was adopted.

The chair presented a recommendation from the Street Commissioners, for grading and fencing the public square at the junction of Franklin and Prospect streets, in the First Ward, and a resolution approving of the same, which was adopted.

A resolution was adopted, authorizing the Mayor and City Clerk to issue an order to Harrison Ludington for $200, chargeable to the Fourth Ward general fund, for filling one half of Wells street, in front of lot 1 in block 65, Fourth Ward.

Councillor Humann presented a lengthy preamble and resolutions, the substance of which was the same as that presented by Alderman Phelps, and adopted by the Board of Aldermen some time since, relative to our public schools, which received one vote! Need we tell who it was that voted for it?

A resolution was unanimously adopted requesting the City Comptroller to furnish the Council with a detailed statement of all the appropriations made for the year 1858, payable out of the general city fund.

A resolution authorizing the organization of a new Engine Company, to be known as Engine Co. No. 8, provided that said company will not apply to the city for any aid for six months from the date of its organization, was presented, and referred to the Committee on Fire Department. After the transaction of some other miscellaneous business, the Board adjourned to one week from next Monday.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed in their most to produce the best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Unlimited proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood and expel ill-disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow by disease, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to their whole system. Not only do these cures of colds, of fever and ague, of every body-pain and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill.—While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in disabled doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made when nothing else could even relieve, and published by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the value of their remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures of numerous complaints.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with them in the cure of all complaints they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Price 25 cents per Box. Five Boxes for $1. Sold by
